Information on the Notes

Merrill Lynch & Co., Inc. (the "Issuer") has issued Bear Market Strategic Accelerated Redemption Securities ("STARS") linked to the PHLX Housing Sector Index (the "Index"). The STARS were priced at $10 each and mature on November 3, 2009.

The STARS are senior, unsecured debt securities of the Issuer that provide for an automatic call of the STARS if the closing level of the Index on any observation date is less than or equal to the Starting Value of the Index, as determined on the pricing date.

If the STARS are called on any observation date, investors will receive a payment of:

- If called in November 2008: $10.6725 per unit
- If called in May 2009: $11.3450 per unit
- If called in October 2009: $12.0175 per unit

If the STARS are not called prior to the maturity date, then at maturity investors will receive per STARS:

(1) If the Ending Index Value is less than or equal to the Threshold Value (172.80), then investors will receive:

$10

(2) If the Ending Index Value is greater than the Threshold Value, then investors will receive the greater of:

- (i) $0; or
- (ii) $$10 + [$10 \times (\text{Ending Index Value} - \text{Threshold Value} / \text{Starting Value}) \times 1]$

The Starting Value of the Index equals: 144.00 The Ending Value of the Index will be determined close to the maturity date.

Please see the prospectus for the STARS for more details regarding the calculations.

It is expected that the market value of the STARS will depend substantially on the value of the Index and may be affected by a number of other interrelated factors including, among other things: the general level of interest rates, the volatility of the Index, the time remaining to maturity, the dividend yield of the stocks comprising the Index, and the credit ratings of the Issuer.
