Information on the Notes

Morgan Stanley (the "Issuer") has issued Market Vectors Exchange-Traded Notes ("Notes") linked to the S&P Indian Rupee Total Return Index (the "Index"). The Notes were priced at $40 each and mature on March 31, 2020. Unlike ordinary debt securities, the Notes do not pay interest and do not guarantee any return of principal at maturity.

If the Notes are held to maturity, investors will receive a cash payment equal to the principal amount of the Notes times the Index Factor minus the aggregate Investor Fee, each as determined on the Final Valuation Date.

On any given day, the Index Factor will be equal to the index closing value on that day divided by the Initial Index Value. The Initial Index Value is the index closing value on the Inception Date. The Inception Date was March 14, 2008. The Final Valuation Date will be March 26, 2020. The Investor Fee is calculated on a daily basis at a rate of 0.55% per annum based on the principal amount of the Notes times the index factor – the calculation is described in more detail in the prospectus for the Notes.

Investors may require the Issuer to repurchase the Notes subject to certain requirements and procedures. Refer to the prospectus and pricing supplement for the Notes for more details.

It is expected that the market value of the Notes will depend substantially on the value of the Index and may be affected by a number of other interrelated factors including, among other things: the general level of interest rates, the volatility of the Index, the time remaining to maturity, the dividend yield of the stocks comprising the Index, and the credit ratings of the Issuer.

The Trustee for the securities is The Bank of New York.

Trading in the Notes on PHLX's PSX System is on a UTP basis and is subject to PHLX rules. The Notes will trade from 9:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. Eastern Time. Additional risks may exist with respect to trading the Notes during PSX's Pre-Market and Post-Market sessions, when the Index's value may not be disseminated.

PHLX will halt trading in the Notes in accordance with PHLX Rule 3100. The grounds for a halt under these rules include a halt by the primary market because the value of the underlying index or a similar value is not being disseminated as required, or a halt for other regulatory reasons. In addition, PHLX will also stop trading the Shares Notes if the primary market de-lists the Notes.

Members and member organizations recommending transactions in the Notes to customers should make a determination that the recommendation is suitable for the customer, as provided by PHLX Rule 763.

PSX members and member organizations also should review NASD Notice to Members 03-71 for guidance on trading these products. The Notice reminds members of their obligations to: (1) conduct adequate due diligence to understand the features of the product; (2) perform a reasonable-basis suitability analysis; (3) perform customer-specific suitability analysis in connection with any recommended transactions; (4) provide a balanced disclosure of both the risks and rewards associated with the particular product, especially when selling to retail investors; (5) implement appropriate internal controls; and (6) train registered persons regarding the features, risk and suitability of these products.

This Information Circular is not a statutory prospectus. PHLX members and member organizations should consult the registration statement or prospectus for the Notes for additional information.
